Me and My Relationships	ELG: Self-Regulation I can show an understanding of my own feelings and those of others, and begin to regulate my behaviour accordingly. I can work towards simple goals, being able to wait for what I want and control my immediate impulses when appropriate.	I can name a variety of different feelings and explain how these might make me behave. I can think of some different ways of dealing with 'not so good' feelings. I know when I need help and who to go to for help. I can tell you some different classroom rules.	I can suggest rules that will help to keep us happy and friendly and what will help me keep to these rules. I can also tell you about some classroom rules we have made together. I can give you lots of ideas about being what makes a good friend and also tell you how I try to be a good friend. Most of the time I can express my feelings in a safe, controlled way.
Valuing Difference	I can give focused attention to what the teacher says, responding appropriately even when engaged in activity.	I can say ways in which people are similar as well as different. I can say why things sometimes seem unfair, even if they are not.	I can say how I could help myself if I was being left out. I can give a few examples of good listening skills and I can explain why listening skills help to understand a different point of view.
Keeping Safe	I can show an ability to follow instructions involving several ideas or actions. ELG: Managing Self I can be confident to try new activities and show independence, resilience	I can say what I can do if I have strong, but not so good feelings, to help me stay safe (e.g. sad - talk to someone). I can give examples of how I keep myself healthy. I can say when medicines might be harmful (e.g. overdose, if not needed, another person's medicine, etc.)	I can give some examples of safe and unsafe secrets and I can think of safe people who can help if something feels wrong. I can give other examples of touches that are ok or not ok (even if they haven't happened to me) and I can identify a safe person to tell if I felt 'not OK' about something. I can explain that they can be helpful or harmful, and say some examples of how they can be used safely.

Rights & Respect	and perseverance in the face of challenge. I can explain the reasons for rules, know right from wrong and try to behave accordingly.	I can give some examples of how I look after myself and my environment - at school or at home. I can also say some ways that we look after money.	I can give examples of when I've used some of these ideas to help me when I am not settled.
Being my Best	I can manage my own basic hygiene and personal needs, including dressing, going to the toilet and understanding the importance of healthy food choices.	I can name a few different ideas of what I can do if I find something difficult. I can say why certain foods are healthy and why it's important to eat at least five portions of vegetables/fruit a day.	I can name different parts of my body that are inside me and help to turn food into energy. I know what I need to get energy. I can explain how setting a goal or goals will help me to achieve what I want to be able to do.
Growing & Changing		I can identify an adult I can talk to at both home and school. I can tell you some things I can do now that I couldn't do when I was a toddler. I can tell you what some of my body parts do.	I can tell you who helps us grow (people who look after us) and what things I can now do myself that I couldn't when I was younger. I can give examples of how it feels when you have to say goodbye to someone or something (e.g. move house). I can give examples of how to give feedback to someone.
